What is a Shopping Party?

---

Clothes That Work offers the opportunity to host a private shopping party for your organization or group of friends. Clothes That Work will close The Boutique to the public and reserve it for your party. 100% of the proceeds from your party goes directly to help purchase items that we do not get through donations such as new steel toe boots, new undershirts, and new socks.

Any Occasion!

The Details

- There is no deposit to book a shopping party.
- Shopping parties must be booked at least 1 week in advance.
- Shopping parties are flexible but usually reserved for Wednesdays or Thursdays between 5pm and 7pm. Please call for availability.
- 20 people minimum.
- During booking, you may request certain colors, styles, or prints to be curated for your party.
- You will have access to a meeting space with tables, chairs, and a mini fridge.
- You may bring in refreshments. Alcohol is permitted on-site.
- You may decorate, provided you clean and take any decorations with you at the end of the party.

There is a minimum purchase requirement of $500 for the party. If the party does not raise $500, we ask for a monetary or clothing donation equal to the remaining sum to cover costs.
